Dear Yak:

After praying for several days, what is the difference between jam and marmalade?

Sincerely,
In a bit of a jam (or is it marmalade)

Dear In a bit of a jam,

After a conference with some fellow yaks, we have come to the conclusion that the difference between jam and marmalade is that marmalade is made with citrus fruit.

Love,
The Yak

Dear Yak:

I am a HUGE fan of Extreme Makeover. I am also a HUGE fan of Yaks. Furthermore I have heard that there is an event possibly combining the two. If this is true, who what when and where?

Sincerely,
Swooning in Spiritwood

Dear Swooning

I have it on authority that there IS an event going down. The deets are as follows:

- Who: Saskatchewan Youth (Grade 8-12)
- What: Fixing and painting an old counsellor cabin
- When: May 30 to June 1, 2008
- Where: Camp Tapawingo (near Prince Albert)

Beyond these simple facts it should be noted for the record that it will be a truly AWESOME time. There should be singing and worthwhile tasks (fun painting and construction) and youth and maybe even an appearance by the Yak.

Peace Be With You,
The Yak

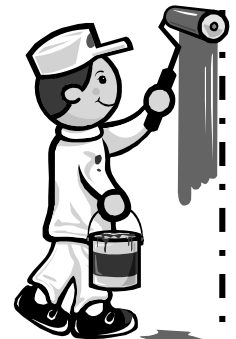

EXTREME MAKEOVER: CAMP TAPAWINGO

Starts Friday, May 30th at 7 p.m.
Ends 2 p.m. with a community
unveiling lunch for all on June 1st

Please join us as we see how stewardship $$$ combined with A little hard work and paint can improve a United church camp for years to come!!

Juno

At first glance this movie doesn't seem like the kind of movie that I would normally go see (what with 300 being my favourite movie...). However this movie defied all expectations I had, I already knew Ellen Page was an amazing actor but she still blew me away. Carrying on her tradition of playing difficult and edgy roles Ellen plays a 16 year old girl who gets pregnant and decides to put the baby up for adoption. The movie tells the story of the struggles of teen pregnancy. Michael Cera plays her boyfriend and is amazing in his role. The music in this movie is catchy and original and the dialogue is also very entertaining. I would recommend this movie for anyone and for any situation, it's well worth the time and money and also worth seeing more than once.

Cloverfield

This mystery is widely unknown and so there's not really much I can say that wouldn't give away any of the movie. This movie is a monster movie, that you can find anywhere on the net, but don't let that information turn you off of it. This movie has atmosphere that is almost palpable. This is helped by the fact that the entire movie is filmed as if from a portable video camera. The dialogue is hilarious, the camera work is top notch and all the secrecy surrounding the movie itself all comes together to make one amazing movie. While I found Lost to be a huge disappointment, J. J. Abrams pulls out all the stops in this blockbuster. This movie is worth any time and money you have to put into it, and when it comes out I would recommend that everyone buy it. So what are you all waiting for...go see Cloverfield!!!!
